HELLOOOO PARADISE!

Sawasdee! 🇹🇭

We're so excited to swap winter for a week in paradise at Koh Samui, Thailand, and we can't wait to move, relax and explore with you.

This guide has everything you need to know – where you are going, what to pack, and what to expect.

Let's get you prepped for a week of sun, sweat, and stunning views!

AN ISLAND ESCAPE

This retreat isn't just about relaxation, it's your launchpad for adventure, connection, and movement!

Get ready for an unforgettable snorkel day trip to Mu Ko Ang Thong National Marine Park.

We'll cruise across crystal-clear waters by speedboat to a tropical island paradise dotted with limestone cliffs, secret lagoons, and powdery white beaches.

Hike to a jaw-dropping viewpoint, kayak through magical sea caves, and soak it all in on a stunning beach surrounded by jungle and sea.

Back on land, embrace the lush beauty of Thailand with a refreshing waterfall hike and daily classes designed to energise and inspire.

Sweat it out, make new like-minded friends and take time to rest and reset poolside at the Absolute Sanctuary resort.

AN ISLAND ESCAPE

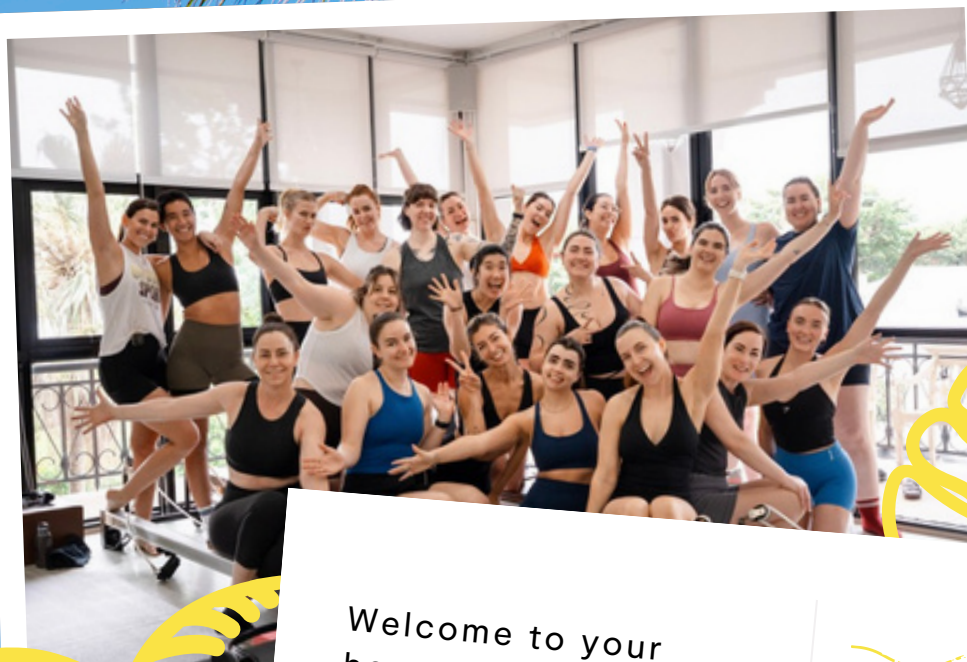

Practise all your favourite class styles including Reformer Pilates, Mat Pilates, Power Flow and Yin Yoga, all led by our experienced Upstate instructors.

Every class is optional, so you can fully tailor your retreat to what your body and mind need most.

Feel empowered, connect with good vibes, and uncover your inner calm. This is your time to move, explore, recharge and make it unforgettable!

A WELLNESS HAVEN

Welcome to your home for the week - Absolute Sanctuary, a vibrant wellness resort tucked into the lush hillside of Koh Samui's serene northeast, also known as Thailand's "island of healing."

THE RESORT

This retreat space is purpose-built for transformation and tranquillity.

With a fully equipped Reformer Pilates studio and two stunning mat spaces (including an open-air ocean view garden shala!), you'll move mindfully surrounded by nature far from life's usual distractions.

Treat yourself with an array of on-site spa therapies – think soothing massages and revitalising facials.

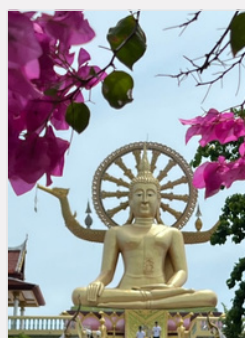

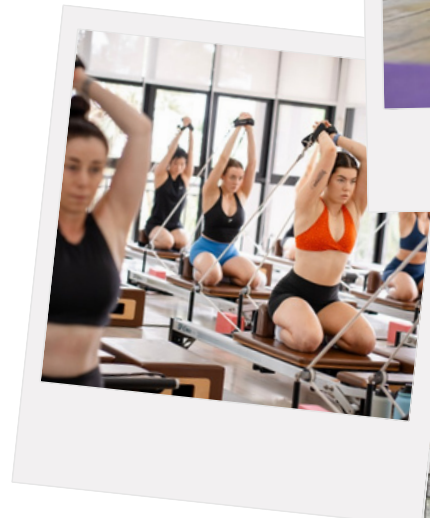

There's also a cosy gym space, salt room and calming nooks to chill out in.

The resort is an alcohol and smoke-free space, serving up nutrient-rich, flavour-packed local cuisine that fuels you from the inside out.

Craving a cheeky cocktail? Just pop across the road to explore nearby cafés and beach bars.

In between classes and rest time, hop on the complimentary shuttle to local beaches, temples and night markets, or head out to explore the island's vibrant culture and coastal charm.

Whether you're seeking connection, adventure, or relaxation – you'll find your perfect balance right here.
